“Do to others as you would have them do to you..”
(Luke 6:31)

“Can I speak to you for a minute?”

I was standing at the serving line in the dining hall at Loaves and Fishes Soup Kitchen, when this middle-age gentleman, who had just finished eating breakfast with us, posed the question to me.

“Sure, what’s on your mind?”

“I just wanted to say that I have traveled all over, and have been to many soup kitchens and missions, but this place is the one place I have been where you have let me keep my dignity.”

Of all the things we do here in trying to let Jesus live through us in witnessing the gospel we share in words, allowing our guests to not feel looked down upon or less than human is of highest priority. I’m glad in this case; at least, we were able to be seen that way.

Please keep us in your prayers as we serve the “least of these”, that we will allow Jesus to live in us. And thanks so much for your ongoing support of the ministry.

Peace in Yeshua,

Rick
